

WRITERS' WORKSHOP - INSTRUCTIONAL CORE

Non Negotiables 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Writing is taught for a minimum of 5 hours a week • Planning occurs in a collaborative environment, based on the Victorian Curriculum Achievement Standards and student data - 6+1 traits • The 5 elements of the writers workshop are consistent in each classroom - Whole Class Focus, Uninterrupted Independent Sustained Writing, Conferencing, Mini Lessons and Reflection. (with exception of Prep and Grade 1 who combine mini lesson/conferencing) • Each classroom has the writing process displayed and students names placed where they are in the writing process. Planning / Seed----- Draft ----- Revising ----- Editing ----- Publishing. • Teachers have a strong understanding of the content they teach in writing with focus on the conferencing hierarchy. • There is a strong belief that all students can learn to the standard and above and that every child gains a year's growth for a year's input.
LESSON STRUCTURE
Whole Class Focus - Explicit Teaching  5-10 minutes	Ideas: Use of mentor text linked to the 6+1 Traits and Teachers Writers Notebook Seeds- Teachers model seeds to students in order for them to understanding how to create their own. Thinking tools are used to support this process. Seeds can be a variety of mediums - photos, items, mentor text, videos, titles etc. 6+1 Traits - Teachers use one of the traits to model a whole class explicit teaching focus with support of mentor text. A whole class focus does not have to happen everyday. It will occur where necessary and possibly only 2-3 times a week.
Uninterrupted Independent Sustained Writing  All students who are not involved in a mini lesson / conference - 30-40 minutes	Students are responsible for selecting the task and text type they are completing during this time. Students work silently as Writing is Thinking. They can be working on: Planning / Seed----- Draft ----- Revising ----- Editing ----- Publishing. Teachers need to keep track of the text types students are choosing to write and direct where needed if students are choosing the same text type each time.
Mini Lesson - Like needs group  10-15 minutes	A mini lesson is a short explicit teaching session focused on a specific skill or understanding a 'like needs' group of students requires. To group students, teachers can use their 6+1 traits data sets and/or conferencing documents. Mini lessons are targeted teaching sessions where teachers are prepared and students are modelled to or questioned to develop the craft of writing. This is an interactive session where students contribute ideas and suggestions and get to practise the skill / understanding being taught. Mini lessons are brief, to the point and uses consistent whole school vocabulary. Mini lessons have one clear learning objective. Students practise the skill / understanding being taught once the mini lesson is finished.
Conferencing - Mixed needs group  10-15 minutes Conferencing Hierarchy	Conferencing is a feedback session linked to the writing piece students have left for their teacher in the class conference folder/draw. Conferencing groups are made up of students who have different learning needs (mixed needs). Conferences are not an explicit teaching group. It is a time for teachers to provide feedback linked to a strength observed in a student's writing piece, an area a student needs to improve and where applicable, feedback on an individual learning goal. Conferencing provides time for teachers to model the questions and comments they want students to ask themselves about their writing. Teachers need to keep detailed records of students areas for improvement to support the creation of mini lesson groups for the following week that can be linked to the 6+1 writing traits.

Conferencing Question Prompts
Reflection 5 - 10 minutes 	Reflection is a short focus on a student or two who have shown the craft of writing either in their conference or mini lesson. Students can share things such as - a new strategy they have implemented in their writing, how their thinking has been changed, a goal they have achieved, read a section of text they changed during the revising process etc. Teachers are targeted in the students they want to come forward to share their work. Reflection Ideas for Writer's Workshop
